

Litzinger Career Consulting

7625 West Hutchinson Street, Pittsburgh, PA • 412-242-5342 • Litzingerkaren@aol.com

Karen Litzinger, MA, LPC, NCC

Biography

Karen Litzinger has over 25 years of career coaching experience. Karen's business, Litzinger Career Consulting, serves both corporate and individual clients. Karen speaks on how to make educated career choices to be happy and about business etiquette and professionalism to be successful. Past clients have included PNC, Westinghouse, CVS, Eat'n Park, and dozens of colleges, associations and high schools.

Karen was previously Director of Career Services at Chatham University and Career Center Associate Director at Carnegie Mellon University. She has been recognized by the National Career Development Association with the special status of Master Career Specialist and is a Board Certified Coach and Licensed Professional Counselor. Karen attained the status of professional member of the National Speakers Association and served as past President of the Pittsburgh Chapter.

On a personal note, Karen published the award-winning CD, Heal Your Heart: Coping with the Loss of a Pet and is the founder of the annual World Gratitude Day Pittsburgh event.